Rain Postpones Reynolds Games

Athletic Director Herma Bryson of Reynolds High School took one look at a rain-drenched diamond this morning and postponed the Demons' baseball activities scheduled this weekend.

Reynolds was supposed to play Greensboro Page this afternoon, and this game has been rescheduled for April 7 at Page.

A contest with Gray, scheduled for Saturday afternoon has been postponed until Wednesday.

The Demons were supposed to engage in a duel track meet with Gray and Burlington at Burlington yesterday afternoon, but it was postponed because of rain. It has been rescheduled for April 6.

West Forsyth and Children's Home will meet in a track meet Friday at Hanes Park. It's the opening test for both teams.

This is West's first year, but as Southwest Forsyth these boys placed third in the sectionals behind Greensboro Grimsley and Reynolds.

Last year Southwest had a 32-man squad. This year the Titans have only 22.

Johnny Stewart, a top man in the hurdles, broad jump and 440, is one of the team leaders. Jim Latchford is back to run the mile. Hugh Hampton, a fine high jumper, should be one of the top men in the conference. Barry Quinn is strong in the 880. Terry Duggins is another
