Junior Olympics Slated Saturday

Athletes from at least nine Winston-Salem schools will take part in the Junior Olympics to be held at Wake Forest Saturday.

Trials will be in the morning, and the afternoon session will get under way at 2 p.m.

Among the local schools entered are Mount Tabor, Paisley, Anderson, Wiley, Kernersville, Parkland, East Forsyth, North Forsyth and Reynolds.

Competition will be in three age-level groups. The 12-13 year olds will compete in one group.

Mount Tabor has Robert March and Bill Miller in the 100-yard dash in this division.

The 14-15 year olds will compete.

Paisley's 440-yard relay team is the favorite in that group. Wiley, Anderson and Mount Tabor will also have teams in the relay.

Michael Keit of Paisley is entered in the 400, the 100 and the broad jump.

Calvin Coleman of Paisley, winner in the 12-13 year-old high jump last year, will compete in the 14-15 year-old group this year.

Rodney Noe of Parkland could be a contender in the 880. Noe's 2:14 is the best of the local runners but not as good as the best entry time of 2:105.

Junior Olympics Set Today at WF

Teen-age track stars from all over North Carolina will battle for records and medals Saturday in the Junior Olympics to be held at Wake Forest.

Qualifying starts in the morning with the finals slated for 1:30 p.m.

The smallest entry list is in the 12-13 year-olds. And if entry times are correct, all the records are safe.

Most of last year's winners in the 12-13-year-olds have moved up to the 14-15 year group.

Five records are threatened in the 14-15 year division. In the 100-yard dash where the record is :10.2.

Two boys from Charlotte, Pike Jones and Chuck Adams have done :10.1.

Edward Currie of Burlington Jordan Sellars should break the 120-yard low hurdles record. He has done :53 and the record is :53.1.

Larry Parks of Asheboro will be the favorite in the 880-yard run. Parks has a 2:05 and the record is 2:08.3.

Tom Hannah of Chapel Hill has high jumped 6 feet, 1 inch better than the 5-11 record.

Paisley Junior High could break the 440-yard relay mark. Paisley has a :46.1 and the record is :46.9.

In the 14-15 year olds, records in the 220-yard dash, broad jump and shot put appear safe. None of the qualifying times or distances are as good as the records.

The 16-17 year old group should do the best in record breaking. Eleven records are in danger.

The records are:
100-yard dash—Tommy Richardson of Southern Pines had done :9.8 and the record is :9.9.
440-yard dash—Thomas Little of Reynolds has a :50, better than the :53.1 record.

High jump—Ronnie Lindsay of Jonesville and Furman Manning of Paisley have done 6 feet and the record is 5-11.
880-yard run—Steve Whicker of East Forsyth has a 1:59.7 which is better than the 2:08.3 record.

220-yard dash—Louis Jewell of Charlotte, the state spring champion, has a :21.5 and the record is :21.8.

Pole vault—Mac Crews of East Mecklenburg should break his own record. Crews has done 13 feet, 6 inches and his record is 12, 11 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches.

Mile run—Greg Allen of Charlotte Myers Park has a 4:30, better than the 4:33.8 record.

The Junior Olympics will be an all-day affair at Wake Forest today.

Qualifying will start at 10 a.m. Field events will also get under way at that time. These will be completed in the morning.

Track events will start at 2 p.m.

Competition is in the 12-13-year-old group, for 14-15-year-olds and 16-17-year-olds.

There will be a lunch break from noon to 1:45 p.m. The Olympic oath will be administered at 1:45 just before the afternoon events.

The entry list for the younger boys is small and they will participate in four events. The closest competition in this group should be in the 100-yard dash where 13 boys will take part.

The 14-15 year olds will compete in eight events. There will be few defending champions since most of the winners have moved up to the next age group.

Paisley of Winston-Salem leads the 440-relay team entries and could break the record.

Tom Hannah of Chapel Hill is the high jump favorite and he too should break the record. Hannah has done six feet. Clyde Jones of Charlotte has done 5-9.

Larry Parks of Asheboro is the 880-yard favorite with 2:05 which betters the record of 2:08.3.

Dennis Griffin of Charlotte York Road heads the 440-yard entries with a :52, also better than the record.

The 100-yard dash has an entry list of over 35 runners. Two boys have an entry time of :10.1, which is good for a 16-17-year-old.

Melvin Nellums of Anderson in Winston-Salem is the broad jump favorite, having done over 20 feet.

John Davis of Charlotte heads the low hurdles group with a :13.6 for the 120-yard event.

Bob Moore of Wilson is the favorite in the 8 pound shot with a 50 foot toss.

The 16-17 year old group will compete in 14 events.

Furman Manning of Paisley and Ronnie Lindsey of Jonesville lead the high jump group with jumps of six feet.

Thomas Little of Reynolds is the favorite in the 440-yard dash with a :50. This betters the record.

Tommy Richardson of South-ern Pines is tops in the 100-yard dash with a :9.8, and this would also break the record. Stan Crews of Reynolds is a strong challenger.

Richardson is also the favorite in the broad jump, having done 22 feet, 4½ inches.

The shot should be good competition. John Wulzyn of Burgaw has done 55 feet, 9 inches and finished third in the state. David Taylor of Chapel Hill has done 55 feet and beat Wulzyn in the state meet, winning the championship.

Taylor has the best entry distance in the discus. But Tracy Lounsbury of Reynolds beat him in the state meet. Taylor was third, Lounsbury was second and Keith Creeson of North Forsyth was fourth.

Paul Vincent of Charlotte is the low hurdles favorite with :19.8. Vincent is the favorite in the high hurdles with :14.3.

Steve Whicker of East Forsyth is the man to beat in the 880 with 1:59.7 as his entry time.

Louis Jewell of Charlotte is the favorite in the 220 with a :21.5. Tommy Richardson and Stan Crews will be challengers.

Mac Crews of Charlotte is picked to defend his pole vault crown.

Greg Allen of Charlotte Myers Park is the mile favorite with a 4:30. Robert Knowles of Burgaw, who finished third in the state meet, should be contender.

Hamlet heads the field in the mile relay with Reynolds a strong challenger.

In the 880 relay, Charlotte is the favorite with Reynolds and Hamlet as challengers.

8 Records Eclipsed In Junior Olympics

By Mary Garber
Staff Reporter

Eight meet records fell yesterday while over 300 North Carolina boys competed in the Junior Olympics at Wake Forest.

Dennis Starnes of Charlotte Smith broke the 100-yard-dash record for 12-13 year olds when he ran a :10.6 in the morning trials. Starnes won the finals in the afternoon in :10.7.

Starnes had been entered in the 14-15 year old division by mistake and there was a question about his age. A check of the official blank showed Dennis will not be 14 years old until Oct. 12 which placed him in the 12-13-year division.

Four records fell in the 14-15 division which had probably the best showing of the day.

James Troxler of Burlington Jordan Sellars broke the 100-yard-dash mark for his age group with a :10.1. This record was :10.2 set last year by Stan Crews of Dalton and Don Jones of North Rowan.

Charles Hodges of Asheboro set a broad jump record with 20 feet 7 $\frac{3}{4}$  inches, bettering the record of 20 feet,  $\frac{7}{8}$  inches set last year by James Webster of Winston-Salem Atkins.

Asheboro claimed another record when Jimmy Wilkins won the 880 in 2:05.7. The record was 2:08.3 set just last year by Larry Forrester of Charlotte Myers Park.

Charlotte Alexander Graham's 440-yard relay team broke the record with :45.3 time. Members of the team are: Eddie Teeter, John Davis, Chuck Adams and Pike Jones.

Three records were broken in the 16-17 year old group. Times here were a little disappointing. The runners complained of the sandy track and the wind. Two of the records were in field events with the mile being the old track record.

Vincent Struble of Raleigh Broughton pole vaulted 13 feet  $\frac{5}{8}$  inches to break the record of Mac Crews of East Mecklenburg. This was 12 feet, 11 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches set last year.

Nick Karres of Myers Park set a discus record with 155 feet 3 $\frac{3}{8}$  inches. But the former record holder was not unhappy. Karres had the record at 152 feet 6 $\frac{3}{4}$  inches.

Robert Knowles of Burgaw ran a fine mile to win in 4:31.2.

The record was 4:33.8, set in 1963 by Donald Fozard of the Durham Striders.

Charlotte schools made a fine showing, 10 firsts in the three divisions. Myers Park, as expected, dominated the 16-17 year olds. Myers Park won six of the 14 events, though this was done by three boys.

Louis Jewell won the 100 and 220, Paul Vincent won the high and low hurdles. Nick Karres won the shot and discus. Myers Park scratched in the mile relay when a couple of runners came up with sprained ankles.

Just as impressive was Charlotte's leadership in the younger group. Charlotte boys won three of the four events in the 12-13 group. They won only one event in the 14-15 group.

Winston-Salem had two winners, both in the 16-17 group.

Thomas Little of Reynolds won the 440 in :50.5.

Steve Whicker of East Forsyth won the 880 yard run in 2:03. Whicker would have had a much better time but he had a slow first lap.
