

Cross Country Meet Today

Reynolds' Jim Williams, who captured his third straight first-place finish of the season Thursday, tangles with the best of the rest in Forsyth County today in the annual city-county cross-country meet at Hanes Park.

Defending senior high champ Jeff Troutman of East Forsyth and West Forsyth's Tom Summers are expected to push Williams for the individual trophy. Parkland's Rick Mathis and North Forsyth's DeNorris Bradley could also pull off an upset.

Reynolds, the defending team champion, is heavily favored to repeat. In Thursday's crushing win over three other schools the Demons had eight runners among the top ten finishers.

In the high school division meet, to be run at 3:30 p.m., a half an hour before the senior division, Anderson will be defending its team title. The individual high school champion, Bernard Gamble, has transferred to Parkland but is not on the Mustang squad and will not be competing.

Troutman, RHS Win In Cross Country

East Forsyth's Jeff Troutman came within two seconds of breaking the Hanes Park course record yesterday afternoon when he upset Jim Williams of Reynolds and captured the senior high division title in the annual city-county cross country meet.

Troutman was timed in 11:18 and "ran a smart race," according to Williams, who finished 60 yards and 11 seconds behind him. DeNorris Bradley of North Forsyth was third.

Reynolds, however, outdistanced the field with four runners in the top 10 and repeated as team champion.

North Forsyth came in second.

In the high school division Johnny Allen took the individual title with a 12:05 performance and Paisley won the team championship, edging Mount Tabor by eight points. Jed Doughton was second.
